

Evaluation for Families in Transition Level I

Date: _____

Attending for Court in which county?: _____

	Strongly Agree	Agree	No Opinion	Disagree	Strongly Disagree
I resented being required to attend this course.
Overall, the course was worthwhile.
The information presented will influence the decisions I make regarding my children.
The course helped me to understand why it is important for parents to find a way to cooperate.
I plan to make a stronger effort to work with my children's other parent for the children's sake.
The course helped me to understand the importance of having a time-sharing plan, which allows both parents to have a meaningful relationship with the children.
The course helped me to understand that children have different needs than their parents during a separation/divorce.
I think this course should be mandatory for anyone going through a parenting change.
The material was presented professionally.

The course helped me to:	Strongly Agree	Agree	No Opinion	Disagree	Strongly Disagree
Learn about the potential impact of a separation/divorce upon a child.
Identify ways to appropriately address parenting functions.
Identify developmental stages of children.
Understand ways to support my child's adjustment to parental separation.
Identify the elements of a Nebraska Parenting Plan and how to develop the Plan.
Learn about alternative dispute resolution, conflict stress management, appropriate language usage, and positive communication.
Identify provisions for safety and transition plans under the Nebraska Parenting Act.
Identify attributes of child abuse, neglect, domestic intimate partner abuse, and unresolved parental conflict and how these impact members of the family.
Learn about resources for those wanting to get more information about separation/divorce from websites and books.

The most helpful aspect of this course was:	Additional comments: